This is a ghost story like no other, although the first characters we are introduced to are very much alive, the ghosts are very soon brought into the story and from then on become the main characters. Jack has just lost his father, so to try and help him come to terms with this loss, his mother rents a house which she thinks has the atmosphere in line with her son, who has the ability to sense things in the spirit world. But the house has more of a ghostly history than she knows, and because of ...
