Spring's Wake. Nora Calhoun keeps her life just like her Provincetown B and B, neat and tidy. She's thrilled when her niece Graham comes to stay with her while completing her graduate fieldwork aboard the Dolphin Fleet. She's less than thrilled when Graham starts hanging out with Willa Lange, a sexy wanderer who works for the Fleet and seems to have her sights set on Graham.

Set in P-Town, Spring's Wake is a strong romance story between Willa and Nora. There's a definite opposites attract in this one and Nora spends a fair amount of time pushing her attraction to Willa (and Willa herself) away.

Spring's Wake has shot to number one in my age-gap romance favourites shelf. So a little about the book... Nora runs her own successful B&B in Provincetown, which is her life, and she loves it. She has had her heart broken before and almost lost everything so she's not eager to fall in love again.

I loved Spring's Wake. This is the third book in the Cape End romance series. We know Nora, owner of the B&B. We get to know Willa better in this book. An age difference romance. Hollis Elizabeth does an excellent job with the narration.
